Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 5		Irregular financial activity was detected on February 9, 2010 by the executive director regarding financial impropriety involving the organization's books. Specifically, the organization discovered potential material diversion of the organization's assets by its bookkeeper. The part-time bookkeeper was in the employ of the organization for only 9 months during which time the suspected fraud was committed. At the filing of this Form 990, the former bookkeeper faces at least one felony count charge of theft in office, with several more pending. Total suspected theft exceeded $150,000. As the organization pursues prosecution and restitution of the amounts diverted, the board of trustees, working with the organization's executive director, has implemented appropriate and corrective actions necessary to protect the organization from future criminal acts of this nature. The corrective actions taken by the organization include the implementation of new accounting procedures involving check signing, bank account reconciliations, and credit card reconciliations. The organization has discontinued use of debit cards. In addition, the organization has instituted procedures regarding payroll reporting, including specific executive director review and approval. These safeguards were implemented with a new, independent payroll company. Through a greater segregation of duties and the contracting with independent bookkeeping and payroll companies, the organization seeks to eliminate the risk of this occurring again.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The Form 990 is reviewed and approved by the organization's executive director. Further, the form is made available to the board for review and comment prior to its filing with the IRS.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The board must annually review and sign a conflict of interest policy.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a		The executive director's compensation is reviewed annually by the current and past president of the board of trustees for reasonableness. The organization utilizes an independent, third party (Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati) to obtain comparable, independent data regarding compensation reasonableness. The deliberations and the board vote to approve the compensation package are substantiated in the organization's minutes. The organization does not compensate any other officers.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 18		The Forms 1023 and 990 are available upon request. Further, the Form 990 is available for public inspection via another's website, www.guidestar.org.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The information is available upon request.
